

6th Criterion

6- Governance, Leadership and Management

- The Institution holds - ISO - 9001:2015 certification, is dedicated to maintaining quality in its day-to-day operations.
- The College operates in accordance with its Vision and Mission.
- The college is led by visionary leadership that actively engages students in higher education.
- The College also focuses on developing leadership and entrepreneurship skills by organizing various events and seminars.
- The Management's main focus is the holistic development of students, fostering positive values through cultural and other activities.
- The Institution and its Academic and Administrative units operate based on the principles of decentralization and participation.
- The college has a decentralized governance system in place for carrying out various activities.
- Annual performance appraisals are conducted for staff members to enhance their quality and improve the teaching-learning process.
- The college provides various welfare facilities for both teaching and non-teaching staff members.
- Faculty members are encouraged to attend Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), workshops, and seminars. The college also organizes such events in collaboration with other institutes and industries to enhance teaching skills and ensure quality among students.
- The institute has established procedures and processes for planning and allocating financial resources.
- The college's IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) focuses on continuous improvement of quality and offers various certificate courses. It has also adopted an effective online teaching system. As an ISO certified institute, we have successfully institutionalized quality assurance in administrative, academic, and other initiatives.

PRINCIPAL
M. M. JAGTAP SENIOR COLLEGE
ARTS, SCIENCE & COMMERCE
MAHAD - RAIGAD.